

Taryn Noelle Launches New Website

Taryn Noelle, today announced the launch of her new website: www.tarynnoelle.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 30, 2009 – BURLINGTON, VT – Taryn Noelle, today announced the launch of her new website tarynnoelle.com. Kicking off a busy summer season packed with performances on many different stages, this new product highlights the multiple talents of this young performer. Photos, new music, highlights from theatre stage performances past and present, teaching schedule, three new short film debuts and a complete schedule of performances all in one very attractive package.

Taryn Noelle breaks the mold with her performance diversity - “Taryn Noelle is a total pro and a true triple threat. She is a great dancer, singer and actor with a stunning stage presence and a huge emotional range”, says Gregory Ramos, acclaimed director, choreographer and performer.

Her diverse performance and teaching schedule takes Taryn in many different directions. The new website will direct fans and students to what interests them most: For vocal performances, either solo, or with other players, private parties, weddings, or for private vocal lessons, and concerts, see her Music link and Schedule and Teaching opportunities. For Ballroom/Latin or Salsa Dance classes, Zumba, children’s jazz or theatre dance, check out the Dance and related links. For theatre and film information it’s all in the Theatre link.

Taryn performs regularly in Burlington and throughout Vermont. For upcoming performances please see the schedule page.

For all this information please log on to <http://www.tarynnoelle.com>

The website was designed by Stephanie Raccine at Off the Page Creations of Essex Jct., Vermont.